

Sukkot celebrates a time of harvest. We are surrounded by the imagery of abundance, the fruit of the fields hanging in our sukkah and shared with our community at festival meals. As we start this year, every person should share in that abundance. Every person should have enough — to live a life of dignity.

The Tree of Life is a powerful symbol, representing all that sustains us, from the food on our plates to the very values that urge us to nurture everyone in our community to flourish.

How will you nourish your community?

*In a land of plenty, there should be plenty for everyone.
Fight hunger at its root.*
